6.00pm Reception – with a glass of Prosecco
6.30pm GMS UK's S AGM
7.00pm Speaker – Katy Hamilton

Katy Hamilton is a freelance researcher, writer and presenter on music. She is fast becoming one of the UK's most sought-after speakers on music, providing talks for a host of organisations including the Wigmore Hall, Southbank Centre, BBC Proms and Oxford Lieder Festival. In addition, she regularly writes programme notes for the Salzburg Festival, North Norfolk Festival and Naxos music, and is a frequent contributor to BBC Radio-3's Record Review. Katy's area of specialism is the music of Johannes Brahms and his contemporaries and she will discuss Mahler's early years in Vienna and his relationship with Brahms.

7.30pm Dinner – followed by Birthday Cake, coffee & tea

There will be a raffle during the course of the evening

Menu attached. Please let us have your choice for Starters' (Nos. 1-4), 'Main Course' (Nos. 5-8), and 'Dessert' (Nos. 9-12) – using the appropriate numbers.
